FORMAL COMPLAINT PROCESS – EVIDENTIARY STANDARD

• Board Policy FFDA
  – Standard: Preponderance of the Evidence
IMPARTIALITY
BIAS
CONFLICT OF INTEREST

ROLES

• Can use College employees in roles or can outsource
• Title IX Coordinator may be investigator but may not be Decision-Maker
• Investigator may not be decision-maker
• Investigators, Decision-Makers, Appeal Decision-Makers, and Informal Resolution Facilitators must be:
  – Impartial
  – Free from Bias
  – Free from Conflict of Interest

IMPARTIAL

• This means being free from bias
• “Treating all rivals and disputants equally and justly”
• Neutral
• Nonbiased/unbiased
  – Example: Avoid sex stereotyping
• Decisions based on objective criteria rather than bias, prejudice
BIAS

- Concern about “cover-ups” or protection of one person or institution based on who the investigator/decision-maker is and their role
- "prejudice in favor of or against one thing, person, or group compared with another, usually in a way that is considered to be unfair."
- Perceived does not mean actual

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

- Aligned interests
- Conflicting interests
- Perceived does not mean actual

BOTTOM LINE...

- Go in with an open mind
- Go in with a clean slate
- Avoid prejudgment of facts, witnesses, and parties
- Be free from stereotypes based on anything, including sex stereotypes
- Do you have a conflict of interest? Perceived or real?
- Keep out all personal beliefs
- If you don’t think you can do it or should do it… say something!
  - To Title IX Coordinator
INVESTIGATORS

INVESTIGATOR

- As the title suggests, your job is to investigate the complaint
- However, you are not the Decision-Maker!
- The College has the burden of proof and burden to gather evidence
- Must be free from bias or conflict of interest, and you must be impartial
  - Bias
  - Conflict of interest
  - Impartiality

INVESTIGATOR

- Notice to Parties
  - Written notice of the school’s grievance process
  - Whether or not there is an opportunity for informal resolution
  - Actual allegations and facts that would constitute sexual harassment
  - Presumption of innocence
  - Statement that the parties are entitled to advisor of their choice
  - Statement that the parties can request to inspect and review certain evidence
  - Information regarding the code of conduct and false statements
INVESTIGATOR

- Review the evidence that has been provided
- What are you researching? What are the allegations
- Review allegations within the context of the definition of sexual harassment
- What do you need to know?
- Create a list of needed evidence (changes along the way)
- Create a list of anticipated witnesses (changes along the way)
- Create an outline of questions for witnesses (but listen and adjust as necessary)
- *Notes may be discoverable
- Make sure witnesses have space to share information you may not have asked about specifically

INVESTIGATOR

- Require a party's written consent before using the party's medical, psychological, or similar treatment records
- Must give both parties equal opportunity to present the relevant evidence that they gather
- Can't restrict the ability of either party to discuss allegations or to gather and present relevant evidence
- Both parties are guaranteed the right to advance notice, in writing, whenever they are invited or expected to participate in an interview, meeting, or hearing
- Must provide both parties the opportunity to have an advisor
- Must give both parties equal opportunities to inspect and review the evidence obtained in the investigation, if the information is directly related to the allegations
- Parties must be allowed to submit written questions to be provided to other party
- Must give both parties a meaningful opportunity to respond to evidence

INVESTIGATOR

- Investigative Reports
  - After gathering evidence, prepare an investigative report on the allegations
  - But do not reach a conclusion
  - Must give both parties at least 10 days to respond to evidence in writing
  - If responses submitted, must consider that response before finalizing investigative report
  - Investigate report finalized and provided to both parties
  - Still do not reach a conclusion
A hearing is not required for K-12 institutions. However, must allow parties to submit written questions. Written, relevant questions must be asked of any party or witness. Answers must be provided. Allow limited, additional follow-up questions.

Best practices in questioning the Complainant, Respondent, and Witnesses:
- Explain the groundwork for conducting the interview and hold all interviewees to the same standards of conduct and decorum.
- Maintain control of the interview, both in the substance of the questions and answers and in the conduct of those in the room (interviewees and their advisors).
- Begin with general, more open-ended questions and work your way to more specific questions.
- Generalized questions can go to the elements of the alleged offense.
- Specific questions should be built off documentary evidence evaluated before the interview, information obtained from prior interviews, and other known facts.
- Keep in mind that interviews are meant to determine disputed issues of fact, and questions should be directed at solving the disputed fact questions.

NOTES ON EVIDENTIARY STANDARDS
- What is “inculpatory” and “exculpatory” evidence?
  - Inculpatory evidence shows or tends to show Respondent’s responsibility.
  - Exculpatory evidence shows or tends to show the Respondent is not responsible.
NOTES ON EVIDENTIARY STANDARDS

• Reference
  – OCR’s Title IX Guidance provides, “The final regulations do not define relevance, and the ordinary meaning of the word should be understood and applied.”
  – Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 401 provides a commonly understood definition of relevance:
    • Evidence is relevant if:
      – (a) it has any tendency to make a fact more or less probable than it would be without the evidence; and
      – (b) the fact is of consequence in determining the action.

NOTES ON EVIDENTIARY STANDARDS

• Evidence about the Complainant’s sexual predisposition or prior sexual behavior is not relevant, unless:
  – such questions and evidence about the Complainant’s prior sexual behavior are offered to prove that someone other than the Respondent committed the conduct alleged by the Complainant;
  – if the questions and evidence concern specific incidents of the Complainant’s prior sexual behavior with respect to the Respondent and are offered to prove consent.

NOTES ON THE INVESTIGATIVE REPORT

• The investigator MUST NOT reach any conclusions—REMEMBER, conclusions in a sexual harassment complaint are reserved for the Decision-Maker
• The purpose of the investigative report is to put the Decision-Maker in the best position to make a thorough, well-reasoned, and supported decision
• Organization and clarity are key in the investigative report:
  – The most natural way for a neutral third-party to understand a story is to present it to them chronologically
  – Show your work! Cite to the sources of information gathered in your investigation
• Prowess to ensure that the investigative report meets the College’s standards of professionalism and propriety
DECISION-MAKERS

DECISION-MAKER

- Can NOT be the person who received the formal complaint or investigated it, including the Title IX Coordinator
- Review evidence
- Assess credibility of evidence/witnesses
  - Be objective in the evaluation of all relevant evidence, incriminating and exculpatory, and avoid credibility determinations based on a person’s status as a Complainant, Respondent, or Witness
- Is there a policy violation?
- Cite reasons for conclusion
- Consider punishments/sanctioning

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Must be free from conflicts of interest or bias for or against Complainants or Respondents
- Must be impartial
- Needs to use independent judgment
- Weigh the relevant evidence, and decide whether it meets the school’s standard of evidence for sexual harassment allegations
DECISION-MAKER

- Live Hearings & Cross-Examination
  - The school’s grievance process must provide for a live hearing.
  - At the live hearing, the decision-maker(s) shall permit the parties and their advisors to ask the other party and any witnesses all relevant questions and follow-up questions, including those challenging credibility.
  - Such cross-examination at the live hearing may be conducted directly orally, and in real time by the party’s advisor of choice and never by a party personally.
  - In the case of either party, the recipient must provide for the entire live hearing (including cross-examination) to occur with the parties located in separate rooms with technology enabling the parties to see and hear each other.
  - Only relevant cross-examination and other questions may be asked of a party or witness. Before a complainant, respondent, or witness answers a cross-examination question or other question, the decision-maker(s) must first determine whether the question is relevant and explore the party’s interests using cross-examination. Any decision to exclude a question or ask rebuttal.
  - If a party does not have an advisor present at the live hearing, the school must provide, without fee or charge to that party, an advisor of the school’s choice who may be, but is not required to be, an attorney to conduct cross-examination on behalf of that party.
  - If a party or witness does not submit to cross-examination, the decision-maker(s) must submit a written explanation.
  - The decision-maker(s) must not rely on any statement of that party or witness in reaching a determination regarding responsibility; provided, however, that the decision-maker(s) cannot draw an inference about the determination regarding responsibility based solely on a party’s or witness’s absence from the live hearing or refusal to answer cross-examination questions.
  - Live hearings may be conducted with all parties physically present in the same geographic location or in the school’s discretion any or all parties, witnesses, and other participants may appear at the live hearing virtually.
  - Schools must create an audio or audiovisual recording, or transcript, of any live hearing.

- Presumption of innocence
  - The standard of evidence (school decides) must be consistent:
    - Clear and convincing
    - Sufficient evidence has been presented to make it highly probably to be true that the Respondent engaged in the alleged sexual harassment
    - Preponderance of evidence (this is our standard of review)
    - More likely than not that the Respondent committed the alleged sexual harassment

- How to determine relevant evidence
  - Does it help to answer the allegations:
  - Is it about the individuals involved:
  - Is it admissible:
    - No: sexual behavior or predisposition
      - Except to determine someone other than Respondent committed the behavior
      - Except to prove consent
    - No: information protected by legal privilege
    - No: party’s treatment records (absent voluntary consent)
DECISION-MAKER

- Written Decision must include:
  - Identification of the allegations potentially constituting sexual harassment
  - Description of the procedural steps that were taken by the school on the way to getting to that point (notifications to parties, methods used to gather evidence, etc.)
  - Findings of fact supporting the determination
  - Conclusions regarding the application of the Code of Conduct to the facts
  - Statement of and rationale for any remedies for the Complainant, addressing how those remedies will restore or preserve equal access
  - Statement of the College's procedures and basis for appeal
  - Can set deadlines for appeal (put in decision)
  - Must be sent to the parties simultaneously

APPEAL DECISION-MAKER

- Grounds for appeal
  - Procedural irregularity affected outcome of the matter
  - New evidence has been discovered that was not reasonably available at the time of the determination on responsibility or dismissal
  - Conflict of Interest of Title IX Coordinator, Investigator, or Decision-Maker, and the conflict of interest affected the outcome
  - Schools can offer additional grounds for appeal, so long as the grounds apply on an equal basis to the parties
APPEAL DECISION-MAKER

• Can NOT be the Decision-Maker, Investigator, or Title IX Coordinator
• Notify parties in writing and implement appeal procedures equally
• Both parties have equal opportunity to submit written statement supporting or challenging the outcome
• After considering parties’ written statements, issue written decision and send it to the parties simultaneously
• Determination about whether the Respondent is responsible for the sexual harassment becomes final after appeal decision

RETIATION
(REMINDER)

• The College or any person may not intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX because the individual has:
  – Made a report or complaint
  – Testified
  – Assisted
  – Participated in or refused to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing
